

El Grupo Empresarial Las Américas [Las Américas Business Group], which corporate name is Promotora Médica Las Américas S.A. [Health Promoter Las Américas], was created in 1989 by a team of health professionals with the ideal of building the best comprehensive health care center, for people requiring health services with advanced technology and human quality. It currently has more than 600 shareholders, mostly health professionals.

El Grupo Empresarial Las Américas is made up of legally independent companies.

It also has investments in companies in which it has smaller proportions without exercising control, including: Ciclotrón Colombia SAS, Unidad Visual Global, S.A. Salud Sin Fronteras SAS, Hospital en Casa S.A.

Clínica Las Américas [Las Américas Clinic], is a branch of Promotora Médica Las Américas, a hospital center dedicated to providing third and fourth level of complexity services, in 77 specialties and subspecialties.

It is a reference institution for the city and the country, and considered in the national and international market as an institution of high complexity offering specialized and comprehensive health services.

Laboratorio Médico Las Américas [Las Américas Medical Laboratory], is a limited liability company where Promotora Médica Las Américas S.A. has a 90% share. Its objective is to provide clinical support services involved in the diagnostic process, through different laboratory tests, and it stands out for its quality as evidenced by accreditation from the College of American Pathology and the American Blood Bank.

The Instituto de Cancerología [The Cancer Institute], a public limited company in which Promotora Médica Las Américas S.A. has a 60.2% share.

It was created with the objective of offering comprehensive services in education, prevention, diagnosis and treatment of cancer.

It is an entity committed to life and constantly developing, always looking for ways to provide better care and quality to its patients and their families, and therefore it has a large group of specialists and subspecialists with national and international recognition.

Clínica del Sur [Clinic of the South], is a S.A.S. in which Promotora Médica Las Américas has a 100% share. It was created in 1985 by a group of specialists from the city, and in 2005 it became part of the investment portfolio of Promotora.

Its commitment is to provide medical services of optimum quality, based on the professional excellence and human quality of each one of its members, maintaining the technological vanguard, and emphasizing, in its services, home care as its main current activity for people who, due to their health conditions, can be taken care of from home.

Odontología Las Américas [Las Américas Dentistry], is a stock corporation born in 1992, in which Promotora Médica Las Americas has a 73.05% share.

Its corporate name is Salud Oral Especializada [Specialized Oral Health], and it is commercially known as Odontología Las Américas. Its mission is to provide specialized dental services, with high quality and ethics, seeking users' welfare and satisfaction.

Fundación Las Américas [Las Américas Foundation], is a non-profit social enterprise founded by initiative of Grupo Empresarial Las Américas in 1992. Its objective is contributing to the social development of municipalities where Las Américas has presence, through programs of health promotion and disease prevention, teaching, research, training and technological innovation in the medical and paramedical, dental and business fields, and through the promotion of scientific and technological exchange programs, and economic support of its own programs and of institutional programs undertaken by itself and with other non-profit organizations.

Patología Las Américas [Las Américas Pathology], is a SAS in which Promotora Médica Las Américas has an 87.5% share.

It began its work in 1993, and its main function is to provide cytological and histopathological analysis services, with appropriate knowledge and good human and technological quality, for users and referring physicians to obtain results with high reliability, optimum quality and opportunely.

Promed Las Américas LLC, is a company in which Promotora Médica Las Americas has a 100% share. It was created by the State of Florida, United States, with the objective of serving as a link to the American market, both for the export of health services and for the purchase of inputs and technology required by any of the companies of Las the Américas.

Farma Store is a simplified stock company in which Promotora Médica Las Américas has a 100% share, and dedicated to the trading of inputs and medications for public sale.

Currently, its establishments are in operation by Droguerías Cafam.

Torre Médica
Las Américas

It is a horizontal co-property created by Promotora Médica Las Américas in 1992, comprising more than 220 health professionals, most of which are shareholders of Promotora and provide their private consultation services in a building adjacent to Clínica Las Américas.

UNIDAD VISUAL Global S.A.
ÓPTICA

The Unidad Visual Global [Global Visual Unit], was created in 1999 and since has established itself as a company that provides visual health care with quality, responsibility, warmth and teamwork.

Promotora Médica Las Americas has a 13% share thereon.

Salud Sin Fronteras [Health without Borders], is the international promotion company of the most advanced clinics and hospitals of the city of Medellín.

It provides clients with personal advice on the health services of partner institutions, and provides complementary services such as: accommodations, local transport, interpretation, and tourist guides.

The current share of Promotora Médica Las Américas is 12.5%.

CICLOTRONS.A.S.
C O L O M B I A

Ciclotrón Colombia S.A.S. is a company dedicated to the production of radiopharmaceuticals used for diagnostic imaging of PET (positron emission tomography) and scintigraphy. Its main activity focuses on the manufacturing of Isotope Fluor 18 (F18) and other radiopharmaceuticals marked with technetium 99m, used in PET, PET-CT scintigraphy cameras equipment for diagnosis in oncology, neurology, cardiology and infectology among other conditions.

Promotora Médica Las Americas has a 22.5% share in this company.

Since 1997, Hospital en Casa [Hospital at Home] has been established in the city of Cali as a pioneer institution in the provision of health services, hospitalization and comprehensive home care, contributing to patient recovery with the quality and technology of a clinic, but in the comfort and security of one's home.

Share participation in this company is 18.17%.